Dr. F. F. Gouraud's Italian Medicated Soap, is universally acknowleded to be, par excellence, the only article extant for the complete remedy of all such disfigurements of the skin, as appear in the shape of pimples, tan, freekles, sunburn and morphew. Dr. G.-s Poudres Subtiles are equally remarkable for the surprising properties they posses in instantaneously removing superfluous hair. His Vegetable Liquid Ronge, for imparing to the cheek and lip a brilliant, permanent, and matural tinge, is sur generic; while his Gracian Hair Dye is equally well known to be all that its name in plies.

ROMAN EYE BALSAM.

"THE LIGHT OF THE BODY IS THE FIR."—What a calamity must it be for those who have weak sees to live in a perpetual twilight! They cannot read pleasant books, or wire pleasant letters to their friends, or enjoy the pleasant unahine of a bright day. Nature may be ever so joyful in her "hotildy attire they are condemned to constant gloom. Not necessarily, however. Science has produced many wonders, and among others the Roman Eye Balsom. A catalogue of the patients who have been cured by its application, could not be read at one sitting. If the eyelds are inflamed or the eyeballs bloodshot, no matter what the cause may have been—just call at the store of Mesars. GENUINE BEAR'S OIL.

GENUINE BEAR'S OIL.

37 Plint, the celebrated maturalist, speaking of bears, informs us that their oil was used by Chepatra as the most nutritive substance which could be applied to her magnificent hair. Science has given the moderes no compound for this purpose equal to the provisions afforded by Nature in the greated of the hear. Its effects, especially in the form of Oil, are truly wonderful. The capillary roots are streathcreef; the bulbs are nourished; and the young hair increases in quantity. Even hald spots become fertile under its influence, if the roots have not been totally annihilated; and this it rarely the case, except at an advanced age. In fact, the Generale Bear's the world has yet seen.
